ANNOUNCEMENTS

BREED THEATRE

Adorable Marguerite Clark in Little Lady Ellen and Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne, Feature for Today and Tuesday.

The bill at the Breed theatre for today and Tuesday is composed of two distinct features, consisting of Marguerite Clark in Little Lady Ellen, a five-part Paramount photoplay, and Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne in "The Great Secret," a three-part Metro marvel.
Little Lady Ellen follows Miss Clark's thrilling romance, Silks and Satins, and is an entirely new production for her. The scenes are laid in Ireland and Miss Clark is seen in an entirely new character, that of a typical Irish lass. The story is very unusual and the scenes are exquisite. The supporting cast includes Maggie Hallowell, Harry Lee and Vernon Steele.
The Great Secret, Metro's big serial, in which Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne are starred, tops the cast record for serial pictures and is justified in the title. The Million Dollar serial. One of the biggest items in the expense of this picture is for scenic effects. Special scenery was arranged for each chapter and these settings involved a big outlay. The cast includes more than six hundred people who were all under the direction of Mr. Robert Z. Leonard. The picture has the reputation of producing great things in motion pictures, and the first chapter, which was the first of the series, was directed by W. Griffith, directed Douglas Fairbanks and was at the very pinnacle of his directorial fame when the Metro Pictures Corp. signed him. Under the Metro emblem he produced the Birth of a Nation and now the present serial.
The management of the Breed has booked The Great Secret at the highest price ever paid for a serial in Norwich and feels that the picture is a production worthy of the immense amount of money spent upon it; worthy of the best efforts of the two famous and the worth of the interest of its patrons.
The Great Secret is in fifteen chapters and the first chapter will be shown on Monday and Tuesday of each week. Don't fail to see the first chapter.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Ethel May Shores and Her Dramatic Stock Company to be the Attraction All This Week.
A new and original entertainment will be seen at the Auditorium this week, starting with the machine today, and Ethel May Shores and her dramatic stock company will furnish it. The company of clever players, headed by Miss Shores, will present two shows, changing Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Each show will run an hour and there will be special stage settings for each chapter.
Aside from the fact that Miss Shores is a clever and versatile actress, she owes much of her success to the fact that she has surrounded herself with a company of actors and actresses who have had plenty of stage experience and who are prepared to back her to the hilt. The type of entertainment given is what might be called tabloid plays and yet each one has a plot, plenty of room for dramatic action and gives an opportunity for comedy to relieve the tense moments.
On Tuesday and Wednesday, Monday and Tuesday will be seen Jackie Saunders in the five-reel feature, The Shrine of Happiness, a western play full of action and drama, and a start to finish. Caught in a Jam, a very funny single reel comedy, will also be shown. The show will be a usual three shows daily and the admission will be matinee and evening, all main oor 10c, evenings balcony 20c.

DAVIS THEATRE

Big Bill of Keith Acts and Triangle Feature Photoplays.
For the first half of this week another splendid show of Keith acts and Triangle photoplays is booked to appear at this theatre. The headline attraction will be the Military Quintette, a big singing offering that is sure to please everyone. They are five people in the act and they have a beautiful stage setting. Al Wild comes next in a comedy offering and he is a mimic and yodler besides being a very funny comedian. The third act is Bradley and Ardine in a singing and dancing surprise, that is a winner. The Triangle feature is Dorothy Dalton and William Desmond in A Gamble in Souls, a five-part Ince production. This show will be a strange adventures of a minister who conducts services down on the Barbary coast in "Frisco. His ideas do not coincide with those of the orthodox. "Frisco dives and so his militant activities against evil are productive of interesting results, one of which is his commission to the throne of the heathen in the South Sea Isles. On the liner he meets a lady of the stage of rather loose morals. The boat takes fire and eventually both minister and actress find themselves sharing misfortunes together.

To complete the show there is a beautiful hand colored picture of Spanish dances and costumes and a funny cartoon comedy.
Matinee at 2:15, all seats 10c; even-main floor 10c, evenings balcony 20c.

FURTHER COMMENT ON NOTE OF ENTENTE ALLIES.

German Newspapers Are Rebuking Socialist Dissenters.

Berlin, Jan. 13, via London, Jan. 14.—Further comment on the note of the entente allies, which was published in the newspapers, and give the central powers, well-documented goal defense against the plan of their opponents for re-making the map of Europe. When Voerwaerts now turns to the socialist dissenters who have been demanding peace "without conquerors, without conquest" and says that Germany's enemies are not ready to give such a peace, hence "they are not every word tending to shake the self defensive will of the German people would be a crime against the German people."

Voerwaerts says the terms are such as could be dictated only after the entente had occupied the chief cities of their opponents and broken hopelessly by their power of resistance and that the note is a new declaration of war with limited aims of conquest. He declares the note was intended to frighten the central powers into submission, but "the entente forgets that the principle of the entente is to yield to the will of the German people who after such unspeakable sacrifices and such mighty military success could not tolerate without compulsion the placing of Germany in the position of a conquered state. Such a declaration of the government that the war aims already have been attained is a success for Germany. While adjusted."

Referring to Belgium, Voerwaerts says: "The prospect of reaching an agreement is jeopardized seriously by the demands of the entente. George Bernhard says in the Vosische Zeitung that "one must long turn the pages of modern history to find more stupid, diplomatic document than this note."
"The entente is now unmasked," he continues, "and everything it says in skillfully playing up Germany's declaration of war and injustice to Belgium weighs light as a feather when compared with the entente's unveiled policy of dismemberment."
Herr Bernhard further argues that it must be clear to Americans that any American intervention is now rendered impossible. Whoever should come as mediator upon the basis of the entente's proposals, Herr Bernhard declares would confess himself our enemy."

BRITISH, FRENCH AND BELGIAN BLIND FUND

Approximately $429,773.92 Has Been Received From All Sources.

New York, Jan. 14.—To correct an error in the figures published in various newspapers throughout the United States on January 13, the fund for the organization's financial relief, the British, French and Belgian permanent Blind Relief fund, has announced today the following: "Approximately $429,773.92 has been received by this fund from all sources. This includes public contributions, proceeds from entertainments, private donations, etc. The total expenditure for administration have been $108,946.13, but $949.24 of this has been met by a single private contribution expressly for that purpose. The balance of $320,827.79 has been paid for the proceeds of entertainments and not from public contributions or responses to appeals.

The fund has now in its depositories, the sum of $319,823.39, not a dollar of which will be used for expenses of administration.

For the first time in sixteen percent of the fund's total expenses, and not 16 per cent. of the total collections, as was previously erroneously reported.
